

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

An improved process for the production of smokeless (low CO_2 -CO emitting) boiler fuels which have been obtained by careful temperature control and the addition of waste, trash or other carbonaceous material during carbonization of various coal materials such as tar sands, bituminous coal, peat lignite, and oil shale.